Rebranding Marly met with the Jerome Park Neighbors Assn. and asked for input regarding rename the property. Suggestions were to keep the name simple, possibly name after a community member. Chris stated that the Woodburn Assn of Neighbors was meeting Monday August 2 and input from that group could be helpful too. Chris would follow up with Evan who was working on a mission statement for the Commission. It was suggested that maybe input on the name would be coordinated with the same survey about the playground. Marly said that she had arranged a meeting with the City Director of Communications Andrew Stacey on Monday August 2 at 2:00 p. m. via Webex to discuss rebranding of the property. Chris asked that the link be sent out to the commission in case others could attend. It was also suggested asking the tenants for input on renaming the property. Commission members agreed that keeping the name simple would be best.
